

After the great success of the first

ANAESTHESIA EMERGENCIES SIMULATION COURSE (PART I)

the College of Anaesthetists in Ireland is delighted to remind all NCHDs of future course dates:

April 16th Western Anaesthesia Symposium, Knockranny House Hotel, Westport

Contact: Dr. Brian Harte; anaesthesia@nuigalway.ie

May 7th RCSI Education Building, Beaumont Hospital, Dublin

Contact: Denise O'Mara; domara@rcsi.ie; 01 809 3768

May 12th ASSET Centre, School of Medicine, UCC, Cork

Contact: David Power; d.power@ucc.ie; 021 4205301

May 14th Regional Clinical Skills Centre, St. James's Hospital, Dublin

Contact: Anne Brady; abrady@stjames.ie; 01 4162413

June 25th CAST Laboratory, Education Centre, College of Anaesthetists in Ireland

Contact: Maria Golden; mgolden@coa.ie; 01 2650609

Anaesthesia Emergencies Simulation Course (Part I) is approved for training by the College of Anaesthetists in Ireland and qualifies for 8 CME points. Course fee is € 400 (includes refreshments and lunch). Places are limited at 12 participants per course. For applications and booking please contact your preferred centre from the list above.

Comments from the launching course:

- ❖ Very good learning environment
- ❖ Learning from your mistakes
- ❖ Very challenging
- ❖ Good feedback/debriefing
- ❖ Liked long debrief sessions
- ❖ Very friendly learning environment
- ❖ Open environment where I was free to comment and ask questions
- ❖ All scenarios relevant to real life practice