

College of Anaesthetists of Ireland

The Gilmartin Lecture

The Faculty of Anaesthetists, R.C.S.I. was founded in 1959 by a group of anaesthetists led by Prof Tom Gilmartin, a prominent Dublin Anaesthetist who became the first Dean of the Faculty. The College of Anaesthetists was founded on September 23rd, 1998. Since 1985 Prof Gilmartin has been commemorated by the Gilmartin Lecture held during the May Annual Scientific Meeting.

2011 Gilmartin Lecturer: Prof Charles Normand, Edward Kennedy Prof of Health Policy and Management, Trinity College Dublin. The title of his presentation was "Doing more for less".

Recipients

2010: Mr Marc Coleman

2009: Prof Paul Muldoon

2008: Dr Archie Brain

2007: Prof Garret Fitzgerald

2006: Dr John Hillery

2005: Prof Carol Black