

Dr AIDEN MEADE AWARD 2024

The 2024 Dr Aiden Meade Annual Award is now open for submissions.

This competition is open to all doctors, dentists and pharmacists registered in the Republic of Ireland as well as to undergraduates attending Irish schools in these three disciplines.

Candidates may submit an essay on any topic of their choice which relates to the health and wellbeing of practitioners. Alternatively one of the following topics may be chosen:

Explore the impact of practitioner health and wellbeing on patient safety

OR

Explore the impact of a compassionate workplace environment on the health and wellbeing of practitioners

Full details of the award and eligibility criteria are available on our website.
