

SAT-Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

Recruitment 2027 - MARKING SCHEME

APPLICATION FORM:

Section C:

Professional Qualifications, Education & Exams: (Marks available - 5)

Undergraduate performance, postgraduate exams (Anaesthesia only), other degree.

FCAI is a requirement of the SAT-RPL Application Process and does not accrue any marks.

Clinical Practice: (Marks available - 10)

Experience in Anaesthesiology.

Marks will be awarded on the anticipation of 6 completed months by date of interview.

Maximum time recognised will be 3 years.

Section D:

Publication & Audit Experience: (Marks available – 8)

Publications (including letters, case reports, book chapters), presentations (national/ international), posters, audit, quality Improvement projects relevant to the specialty.

Please Note: Reference codes & links to journal publications must be supplied, letter of completion from audit supervisor required. No marks will be awarded if valid links to published material are not supplied. Journal impact factor will be taken into consideration.

Prizes and Awards: (Marks available – 2)

Proof of any relevant prizes and awards must be submitted as part of the application.

Discretionary Marks: (Marks available - 4)

Marks awarded for clinical and academic achievements not already included in Sections C and D of the application form.

Postgraduate Courses & Departmental Professional contributions: (Marks available - 6)

Please note that date of course completion, evidence of courses and documented evidence of Departmental contributions for the last 3 years only, must be supplied

TOTAL:	35 MARKS
---------------	-----------------

INTERVIEW:	65 MARKS
-------------------	-----------------

TOTAL:	100 MARKS
---------------	------------------